

Edinburgh & Lothians

Channings Hotel

Channings is regarded as one of the finest hotels in Edinburgh and was named 'Edinburgh Hotel of the Year' in 2004. This delightful hotel has something to offer everybody and is well worth a stay.

Luxury 4 star hotel

5 Star Balmoral Hotel

A luxury hotel in the true sense of the word, Rocco Forte Hotels' Balmoral, with its majestic clock tower, is a stylish five-star property in the very heart of Edinburgh.

The Balmoral offers 188 opulent suites and stylish rooms with views towards Edinburgh Castle, the Old Town, or the hotel's internal courtyard. All the bedrooms were fully refurbished in the hotel's recent £7 million refurbishment programme.

When it comes to fine-dining, the choice of restaurants at The Balmoral matches the mood of the moment. With attentive but non-intrusive service, guests can choose from the hotel's Michelin-starred number one restaurant with outstanding cuisine provided by Chef Jeff Bland; Hadrian's for chic and informal dining; Palm Court for cocktails or traditional afternoon tea and NB's Bar for a relaxing drink with live entertainment.

Melville Castle

4 star castle by Edinburgh

Melville Castle has been the host to many distinguished guests over the centuries, including Mary Queen of Scots, Queen Victoria, King George IV and Sir Walter Scott. Although the trend for Royalty and literary guests has somewhat come to an end; with today's luxury accommodation, elegant reception rooms, & an AA-Rosette awarded restaurant, the reception and service of Melville Castle Hotel, Edinburgh, Scotland, is no less than that offered to the great icons of the country's illustrious past.

Lemonde

This hotel only opened in 2006 but has already established itself as one of Edinburgh's finest hotels. Ideally located on George Street close to the premier shopping and restaurant areas, this unique hotel is a collection of 4 restaurants, a nightclub and 22 suites all themed on different cities of the world. These rooms are amongst the finest boutique style rooms in the country and each room is oozing character. Be prepared to be impressed !

5 star boutique hotel city centre

The Roxburghe

This hotel elegantly blends in with the period houses in Charlotte Square, but behind the façade, lies a modern 4 star hotel with all grades of rooms from standard or suites. There is a pool and spa in this hotel. The hotel is ideally located near the west end of Edinburgh's famous Princes Street, close to the main shopping and restaurant areas and within easy walking distance of Edinburgh Castle.

4 star hotel city centre

The Sheraton Hotel, Edinburgh

This is one of Edinburgh's finest hotels with the full range of amenities and services you would expect from the Sheraton Hotel group. Their spa, called No1, has been voted top spa of the year in previous years and is a superb facility for residents and members alike. Plenty of choice of bars and restaurants in the hotel and lots of good places nearby as well. Great service, great location that makes this a good choice for corporate and private visitors to Edinburgh.

5 star city centre

Fife

Macdonald Rusacks Hotel

The Macdonald Rusacks Hotel enjoys a prestigious location overlooking the

Luxury 4 star hotel St Andrews

legendary 18th green of St Andrews' Old Course. Guests who have stayed here include, as you might expect, many of the golfing greats.

Enjoy the comfort of the newly refurbished lounges with the views from the sun lounge particularly pleasing to the eye. Serving teas, coffees, bar lunches and much more. Great food, great views from the Old Course restaurant. The place to be for breakfasts, lunches and delicious dinners.

Old Course Hotel Golf Resort & Spa

Luxury 5 star hotel

There is no more spectacular location in all of St Andrews. This fine resort hotel overlooks the manicured acres of its namesake The Old Course and across to the North Sea beyond. It's an elegantly informal haven of luxury, warm hospitality and exquisite dining. Now owned by the Kohler Group of WI USA and they have recently created the famous Kohler Waters Spa. This recently won the Spa of the Year award 2006. All rooms have been refurbished in 2006 and this now is one of the most elegant hotels in the country.

The Fairmont St Andrews

5 star resort hotel

This hotel only opened in 2000 and has already established itself as one of Scotland's premier hotels. With over 200 rooms, 2 golf courses, a spa, a huge conference capacity, an elegant clubhouse and a driving range, this is a great location for individuals, a golfing group or a larger corporate group. It is located just 3 miles from St Andrews with a complementary shuttle bus running most of the day for those who don't have their car with them. Their fine dining restaurant Esperante is one of Scotland's finest restaurants. Make sure you ask us to book your table in advance of your arrival.

Perthshire

Gleneagles Hotel Auchterarder

5 star resort

This is arguably Scotland's premier resort hotel, with over 280 rooms, 3 golf courses, golf academy, equestrian centre, shooting school. spa and many other sports. The 3 courses all are of championship standard. The Kings is a traditional heathland course with lots of history. The Queens is also a great course although a little shorter but tighter, and the PGA Centenary is the Nicklaus course that will host the 2014 Ryder Cup. An amazing experience awaits.

However this hotel also appeals to the non-golfers due to the proximity to the highlands and Edinburgh and the high standard of service it offers all its guests.

Aberdeen & Grampian

Macdonald Ardoe House Hotel Luxury 4 star hotel

The Macdonald Ardoe House is a luxurious modern hotel, beautifully crafted from an imposing 19th century mansion house and inspired by the royal residence of Balmoral Castle, a few miles upstream.

One of Aberdeen's top hotels, and part of the Macdonald Hotel Group, the Macdonald Ardoe House is a world of relaxation in itself. Yet, surprisingly, such serenity lies only three miles from the centre of the vibrant city of Aberdeen, Scotland.

The Marcliffe at Pitfodells, Aberdeen 5 star country house style hotel near Aberdeen

This is the top 5 star hotel in the area. Elegant grounds, sumptuous public rooms, luxurious bedrooms, a spa that was only added in 2006, all adds up to make this a most comfortable location. Dining is exceptional and a great stay is assured.

Highlands & Skye Rocpool, Inverness

A charming, small boutique style hotel where service and quality is everything. Food is exceptional, rooms are delightful. A very smart place. Located in a residential area near the city centre, this is a very popular base for our clients to relax and enjoy the area. Double rooms only - no twins.

Newton Hotel, Nairn

Nairn is a charming town to stay in, just 12 miles east of Inverness and the Newton is the best hotel in the area. The hotel was tastefully extended a few years ago and the rooms now are good size and the bathrooms are exceptional. You have the feeling of being in an elegant country house hotel while in residence here. A great location for golf, sightseeing, touring and the whisky trail.

The Carnegie Club at Skibo Castle

Deluxe private club near Dornoch

One of the world's great sporting clubs. This all-inclusive club offering guests the ultimate in living standards. This wonderful castle was the former home of Andrew Carnegie, the great 20th century philanthropist and many of his possessions still remain in the castle for you to see and enjoy including many books in his library. The estate now has many sporting activities including golf, shooting, fishing,

It is a condition of residence that you are with a member of the club or you are on an inspection visit, which anyone can have once. NOTE. If you have already visited there and have not taken a membership then you will not be able to stay a second time even if some of your group are visiting it for the first time.

The Three Chimneys, Isle of Skye

5 star restaurant with rooms

One of Scotland's finest restaurants with 6 rooms all very comfortably furnished, this is a haven for those who enjoy fine dining. Located in a surprisingly remote corner of Scotland, you can use it for a few days to tour the Island of Skye with its many places of interest. But let's be realistic, you are here for the world-class cuisine... the sightseeing is something to do between meals! Yes it is that good! Come, enjoy and forget the diet. This is only for serious food lovers.

The MacDonald Highland Resort at Aviemore 4 star

Just a few years ago McDonald Hotels embarked on an ambitious plan to create its own resort in a run down area of the highlands. The area is one of outstanding natural beauty, which has fully justified the huge expenditure. The resort is an amazing achievement with lots of space, excellent 4 star accommodation, a golf course, spa, a conference centre and a whole lot more.

Yes it suits the larger corporate booking, but so also does it suit small group of 2 people upwards who are looking for elegant, comfortable, accommodation in a beautiful area of the country. The views are great and the air is clear. Make sure you stop here for a couple of days in your travels - you won't regret it.

Ayrshire & Arran

The Westin Turnberry Resort
Luxury 5 star resort hotel

Situated on a magnificent stretch of the Atlantic coastline, with the gently rolling Scottish countryside at its back, Turnberry is unquestionably one of the great resorts of the world.

Set in 800 acres of one of the most beautiful corners of Scotland, Turnberry's fascinating provenance and idyllic natural position render any stay a memorable experience.

At its heart is an internationally renowned hotel, a five star experience of superb accommodation, fine dining, relaxing lounges and friendly Scottish hospitality. Here luxury and beauty go hand in hand, providing the perfect backdrop to a range of unrivalled sporting, leisure and business facilities.